

To whom it may concern,

I am thrilled to be writing this recommendation letter in support of Sanna Ljunggren. I have worked both in France and New York and I have rarely found such a unique energy as Sanna possesses.

I have had the chance to have her on board for my last project "AN EVENING WITH WOMEN" in which she acted in one of the 2 plays. Her eccentricity and wit helped developing the character she portrayed and she took the challenge without doubt.

Sanna has a lot to say and to show combined with an thrust to push herself to great length as an actor and will therefore be a perfect as well as a great asset in any production.

I'm available anytime to answer any of the questions you may have,

Dramatically yours,
